

Suffolk Information on Prescription

- Partnership working
- Libraries
- Health
- Social Care
- Non Statutory Sector

Breaking Down Barriers

- Promoting new ways of working
- High level contacts - open doors
- Standing out from the rest
- Persist/find another route to get an appointment
- Sell the project to them

Benefits to the Professionals

- Validated information
- Informed discussions
- Simple to use
- Savings on the prescribing budget
- Fewer admissions
- Extra resource

Project Memory Joggers

- Create + use logo
- Use logo on everyday items – pens + mouse mats
- Prominent marketing displays in public areas
- Public awareness in libraries, surgeries, pharmacies, etc

Prescribing experience so far

- Helping more people
- No need to know everything
- Information signposted from and to many agencies
- Not your field? Don't worry- you can be the first step

Contact Details

- Sue Nicholson
- Information on Prescription Project Coordinator
- Bury St Edmunds Library
- 01284 253549
- Sue.nicholson@libher.suffolkcc.gov.uk